

Cambridge B1 Preliminary picture description #5

This is a picture of a small child, probably about five years-old: a little girl with curly hair, which is kind of light brown or blonde. Looks very happy in a house, probably her house. She looks very comfortable and she's got a dummy in her mouth. She's got her arms crossed and she's wearing normal style clothes, very casual. And she's got probably her parent's shoes on, an adult's pair of shoes. And she's looking at someone just to the left-hand side of the person taking the photo, so probably her dad's taking the photo and her mum's just to the side. And just behind her to the right is a stereo with some cds and below that some videos. It looks like a house for children with lots of things. The child looks very happy, probably a very happy child in general. Looks very comfortable in her house and seems to be a happy child; probably got a very secure family and stability and from the photo it looks like she enjoys playing with her parents and having a photo taken.
